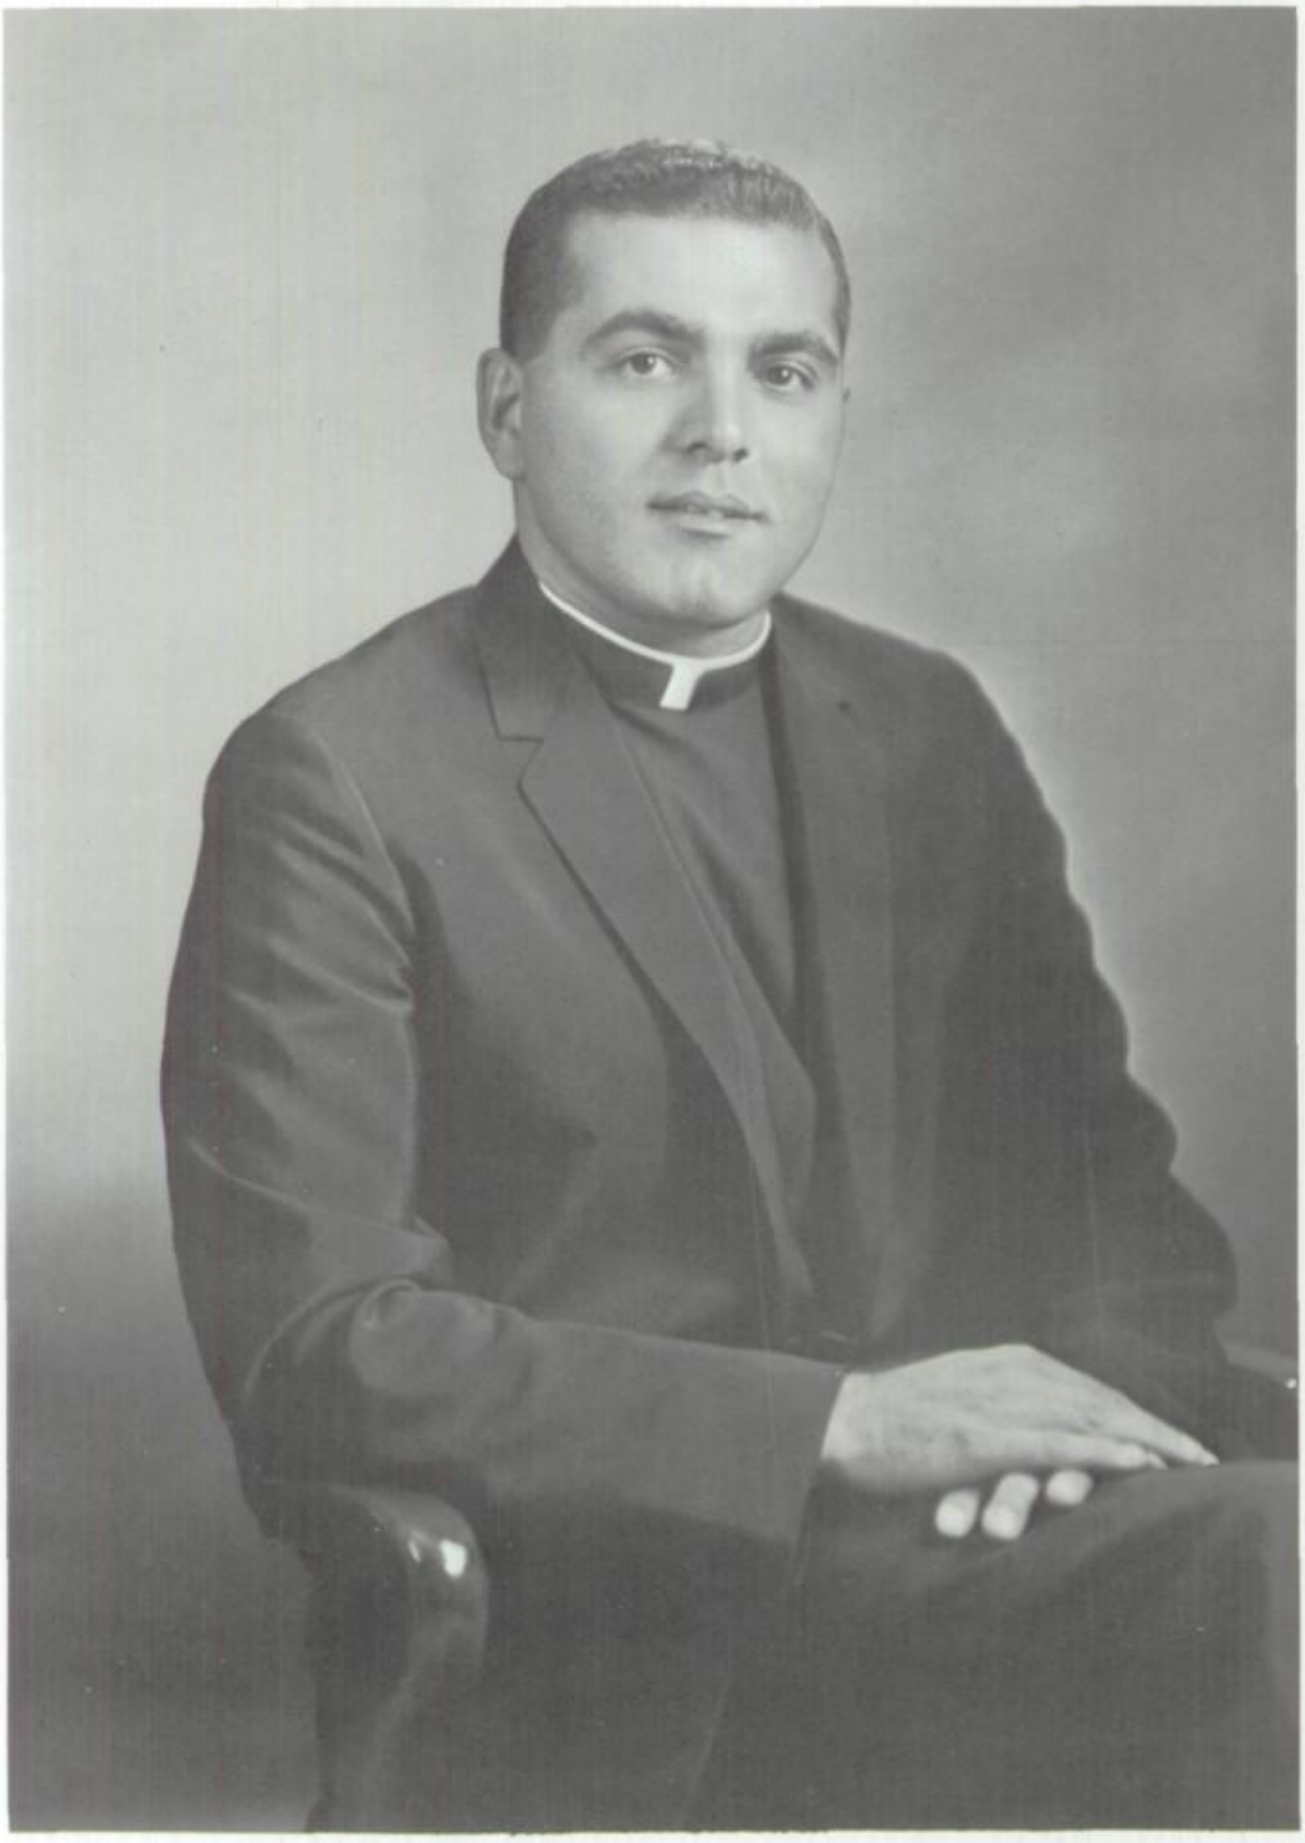
DEDICATION



Because he has worked with us and for us, because he has given generously of himself --words cannot express our sincere gratitude to this man. His varied duties include being Associate Pastor, CYO Moderator, and Religion teacher at St. Mary's.

He has very graciously volunteered his time to help make this book possible.

In sincere appreciation for everything he has done, the Annual Staff proudly dedicates ROUND-UP '67 to Fr. Joseph Tash.

ROUND UP '67 STAFF

ADVISORS

Rev. Joseph Tash

Msgr. Leroy Matthiesen

THEME

As the rays of the Western sunset fade beneath the horizon of our great land, so do the rays of this phase of our education disappear into the past.

In the eye of the mind, we can envision the beauty of the sun rising on the morrow, and the beginning of a new day - a new day in our lives, for now we must face greater challenges.

Throughout the pages of this book, we have endeavored to capture the memories of the past four years, with the hope that you, the reader, will always cherish them.

We are grateful to the schools and teachers who have given us our education, to our parents who made it possible, and above all to God, who has given us our very lives.

May we never forget the beautiful heritage that is ours. May we always remember that although the sun has set today, tomorrow brings ever greater visions of happiness.

The Round-Up staff invites you to meander through the ensuing pages, capturing as much as possible, so that it might influence your tomorrow - the start of another day.

RESERVED (What, reserved for me? You sick or something?)

Trish (a friend?)

If there's anything I hate more than signing your annual, it's either chasing Kelley or worrying about talking to Father. I don't know what to say except, Thanks for just being you. That's all I can say, stay the way you are, you've got to. You are different + you're nice that way. Well that's enough of that, reading an annual could easily turn somebody's head; it better not turn yours. (Father might get mad at me)

Well, I guess we've had a lot of fun together, Right? Fun that we would never had even of thought of having if we hadn't met Father. He's something; isn't he? But What? Oh well! Help! I can't think of anything to say! Oh forget it! I didn't say I think, but you hate me so much, you don't want me to say anything more, so. Bye!

soo, soo!

Dear Trish,

I haven't got ~~the~~ ~~slight~~ any idea as to what to ~~right~~ write (oops) so if I ~~right~~ write anything it is bound to be inspired.

You know Trish we aren't really as good of friends as we should be. It seems more like Colleen is our links rather than a friendship between us. We'll have to change that before the end of the years; I will probably not go here next year. We had a good start, at least on my part, when Collie and I spent the weekend with you. Don't think I don't like what you do, because I admired you when you defended what you ~~did~~ do.

To your future I hope it is happy and blessed. I hope you can forget bad memorys and cherish only the good memorys. Do what you want to but don't get in trouble. ok? If you don't I'll come back and my spirit will haunt you (It doesn't matter whether I'm dead or not).

Love,
Verna

Pat,
a real cute girl!
I admire you in all
you do. Stay the way you are and you'll go far. You can always trust in me!
